Dear Admiral:

Thank you for your invitation to address the War College. My shaky legs warn against unddertaking such a trip as you suggest, but I deeply appreciate the compliment of your invitation.

Sincerely,

Will Durant

A copy of more of my Noontime mail.
I had written to Will and Ariel (whom I had met on two occasions), inviting them to come to Newport to give some history talks. I guess this memo will not make it. (He's 90+)
