My dear James C. Shaw:—
If the small amount of information I was able to send Taylor Evans' wife, concerning the Evans' family—was of any help to you, I am pleased.— As you doubtless understand— it was at my Grandfather's— (Alex H. Evans) Admiral Evans made his home until his marriage—I lost my father (Richard H. Evans) when I was five years old.— From that time, until I was grown, I saw very little of my father's family.

My husband (Dr Harry J.
Kavanaugh) was deeply interested in genealogy. Hence the papers sent to Mrs Taylor Evans. There is a book written by a relative - Mrs Nora Allen - Subject - "the Evans family" - which may perhaps be found in the "Library" - I have not seen it - but, I understand, it is quite thorough. - So it may help. - I was born and raised in Iowa but have lived in Maryland since 1910 - my mother was a native of Frederick and my father's husband also.
Sorry I can be of such
