

Copy.

10

Navy Department.
Bureau of Equipment & Recruiting -
Washington, Oct. 1.st 1884.

Sir:

The Superintendent of the Naval War College will be allowed a Cook, Steward, and Barge's crew, to consist of a Coxswain, 1st class Machinist and one seaman -

The Cook, Steward, & Coxswain are to receive the same pay, as allowed to such ratings authorized for a Commandant of a Navy Yard. The accounts of these men are to be borne on the "New Hampshire", but the men are not to be quartered or messed on board that vessel.

Please have the men enlisted for "special service" upon consultation with Commodore Sizer.

By direction of the Department

Very Respectfully -
Signed. W. S. Schley.

Captain A. R. Yates -
Comd'g the "New Hampshire"

Chief of Bureau -

Newport R. I.

Attendance of Complement for the Colours
E

(1)

711
COPY.

9.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,

Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting,

Washington, Oct. 1st, 1884

Sir:

The Superintendent of the Naval War College will be allowed a Cook, Steward and Barge's crew, to consist of a Coxswain, 1st. Class Machinist and one Seaman.

The Cook, Steward & Coxswain are to receive the same pay as allowed to such ratings authorized for a Commandant of a Navy Yard. The accounts of these men are to be borne on the "New Hampshire", but the men are not to be quartered or messed on board that vessel.

Please have the men enlisted for "special service" upon the consultation with Commodore Luce.

By direction of the Dept.

Very respectfully

W. S. Schley,

Chief of Bureau.

Capt. A. R. Yates

Comdg. the "New Hampshire"

Newport, R. I.