

OUTLINE OF COURSE

Department of Intelligence - Senior and Junior Classes, 1930

Periods	Subject	Motive	Requirements	Lectures (Both Classes)
I Senior Class 1 July to 15 Aug.	CORONEL, FALKLAND ISLANDS. JUTLAND.	To familiarize students with fundamental principles as brought out in modern naval battle.	Reading and study of available literature on Naval Battles of the World War in preparation for presentation on Game Board	By Civilian Authorities Mexico South America Soviet Regime Government and Policy Basic U.S. Policies Caribbean Policy of U.S. Pacific Mandates The League of Nations The British Commonwealth Gallipoli Campaign Situation in Near East Situation in Far East National Economic Independence Leadership I Strategic Raw Materials Leadership II
I Junior Class 1 July to 15 Aug.	CORONEL, FALKLAND ISLANDS. JUTLAND.	To familiarize students with fundamental principles as brought out in modern naval battle	Reading and study of available literature on Naval Battles of the World War in preparation for presentation on Game Board	International Law Basic International Law Discussion of Situations I, II, III By Officers of War College Staff The Islands and Bases of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans (10 lectures - illustrated) Naval History (7 lectures - illustrated)
II Senior Class and Junior Class 15 Aug to 24 Aug	Presentation of Coronel, Falkland Islands and Jutland under Operations			Prescribed Reading Course - Senior Cl. 1. A History of Sea Power by Stevens and Westcott 2. Maintenance of Peace by Vestal 3. International Law by Fenwick 4. Stonewall Jackson by Henderson (2 Vols) 5-6. America's Foreign Relations (2 Vols) by Willis Fletcher Johnson 7. Introduction to World Politics by Gibbons 8. American Diplomacy by Fish or Principles of American Diplomacy by John Bassett Moore 9. Naval Strategy by Mahan 10. Operations of War by Sir Edward Bruce Hamley
III Senior Class 26 Aug to 17 Oct	HISTORICAL STUDIES	To acquire familiarity with Naval and contemporaneous history	Reading and study of Naval history of definitely assigned periods. Writing of individual narratives of periods assigned
III Junior Class 26 Aug to 17 Oct	HISTORICAL STUDIES	To familiarize students with tactical principles as embodied by employment of small units in a modern naval battle.	Reading and study of available literature especially with reference to the employment of destroyers. Writing of a thesis on the subject "Destroyer Tactics in the Battle of Jutland".
IV Senior Class and Junior Class 18 Oct to 21 Dec	INTERNATIONAL LAW	To acquire general knowledge of International Law, especially with reference to Naval duties	Reading and study of specific bibliography. Lectures by a Professor on International Law. Solution by students on case problems
V Senior Class 3 Jan to 26 Feb	HISTORICAL STUDIES - POLICY	To acquire familiarity with Naval and contemporaneous history, and U.S. Foreign Policies	Compilation by Committees of narratives written by individuals during Period III. Policy reading	Junior Class 1. A History of Sea Power by Stevens and Westcott 2. The Dardanelles by Callwell 3. International Law by Wilson and Tucker 4. Stonewall Jackson by Henderson (2 Vols) 5. Battle Studies by du Pieg, Greely and Cotton 6-7. America's Foreign Relations by Willis Fletcher Johnson (2 Vols) 8. Foreign Policies of the U.S. by Dealey 9. Latin America and the U.S. by Stuart 10. Influence of Sea Power upon History by Mahan 11. Naval Strategy by Mahan
V Junior Class 3 Jan to 26 Feb	HISTORICAL STUDIES	To familiarize students with conduct of war as exemplified in Subsidiary Naval Operations of World War	Reading and study of available literature on certain sea operations in World War. Writing of a thesis on the subject "Subsidiary Naval Operations of World War"
VI Senior Class 1 Mar to 26 Apr	HISTORICAL STUDIES - POLICY	To acquire familiarity with naval and contemporaneous history and U.S. Foreign Policies	Committee Presentations. Reading of prescribed bibliography and attendance at lectures. Writing of thesis on "The Foreign Policies of the United States"
VI Junior Class 1 Mar to 26 Apr	POLICY SUBJECT	To familiarize students with national policies particularly in reference to Panama Canal and Caribbean	Reading of prescribed bibliography and attendance at lectures. Writing a thesis on "U.S. Policy in Caribbean Area"
VII Senior Class and Junior Class 28 Apr to 24 May	Discussion and	playing of problems under Operations

Approved:
J. S. ...
Captain ...
Chief of Staff