LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING. The local hotel provides same day service for laundry and dry cleaning. Clothing should be presented at the front desk of the hotel by 0900 for return by 1630.

PRESS POLICY. Addresses in Spruance Auditorium and committee seminars will not be open to the press. However, it is intended that all addresses and summaries of committee seminars be printed after the Symposium. To provide photographs for the post-Symposium summary of proceedings, and to support any news releases that may be made during the Symposium, Navy photographers will be covering all Symposium events. Requests may be received from local media for interviews with individual delegates. All such requests will be coordinated with the Escort officers to determine the delegates' personal preferences.

LOCAL TRANSPORTATION. While in Newport transportation will be provided for all scheduled events either by motorcar or special buses. Return transportation to airports in Boston or Providence will also be provided. Any special transportation requirements should be arranged through escort officers.

LANGUAGE. Simultaneous translation of Symposium addresses presented in Spruance Auditorium will be provided from English to French, Spanish and Arabic. In Regional Committee Seminars, English will serve as the official language. Translation headsets are channelized as follows:

Channel 1 - Arabic
 Channel 2 - French
 Channel 3 - Spanish

LOCAL ACCOMMODATIONS. All participants and spouses accommodated at the Viking Hotel will be provided breakfast in the Bellevue Room at the hotel. Lunches and dinners have been separately arranged as listed in the schedule of events for the Symposium and the wives' daily program. Those accommodated in the BOQ and persons not included in scheduled events may dine at the Commissioned Officers' Mess or make other arrangements. Hours of operation for the COM (O) are:

Breakfast - 0645-0830
 Lunch - 1130-1300
 Dinner - 1700-2000

PHOTOGRAPHS. In order to provide each delegate with a complete biographical sketch and photo of other delegates and participants, a comprehensive biographical data book is distributed as a part of your V ISS portfolio. In the event you have been unable to forward a photo prior to your arrival, special arrangements have been made to take your photo here which will then be included in a supplement. Please have your escort officer make any required photo appointment with the College's Public Affairs Office in Conolly Hall.

UNIFORMS/CIVILIAN ATTIRE. Navy Service Dress Blue (blue uniform with ribbons) or country equivalent is the uniform for the VISS sessions on 3 and 4 October and for the President's Reception and CNO's Dinner the evenings of 2 and 4 October, respectively. Civilian clothes may be worn the last day of the Symposium as a convenience for those departing soon after adjournment for onward travel.
